HISTORY of the INDIANA ARTISTS CLUB

Compiled from records in Club files—1945-46

The Indiana Artists Club was organized as the Indiana Art Club, January 23, 1917. A few months later the name of the club was changed to the present name to more nearly represent an organization of professional artists rather than a group of persons interested in art.

The original organization was composed of 46 charter members including both artists and laymen as follows:

Carl C. Graf	Dorothy Morlan
Frances E. Riesenburger	John D. Ross
Roda E. Selleck	M. W. Adams
Otto Stark	Florence H. Fitch
T. C. Steele	James S. Ross
R. E. Snodgrass	Paul Hadley
(Mrs.) E. Sangernebo	Alice Ross Hadley
Earl E. Evans	Wayman Adams
Win. Burgmann	Randolph L. Coats
Millard V. Warner	Grace Margaret Kiess
Elizabeth E. Heuser	Johann Berthelsen
H. F. Pressnall	Marguerite Casanges
Frederick Polley	St. Clair Jones
Mary C. Gray	H. Simpson
Paul A. Randall	Harrison Paul Brown
Anna F. Lee	Donald R. Dohner
J. H. Rhoades	E. Chase Cassady
Clifton Wheeler	Robert L. King
William Forsyth	T. Mark Liddell
Bessie Hendricks	Anna Lou Matthews
R. P. Finney	Clara L. Sorensen
Adolph Meyer	Marie R. Doremus
S. P. Baus	Marie C. Todd

The first officers were:

Otto Stark.....	President
Frederick Polley.....	Vice-President
Clifton Wheeler.....	Treasurer
Anne Lou Matthews.....	Secretary

An exhibit of the artist members of the club was held the first year in the club rooms in the Union Trust building, Indianapolis. A number of pictures were sold from this initial exhibition.

This was the third year of World War I, and there were six of our members in the service. The club held a Red Cross exhibit and auction of pictures and craft work contributed by members. The occasion was given newspaper publicity and proved most successful, in public interest and in sales. It was held in a room on the street floor of a building on Monument Circle, and yielded the sum of $2,222. All of which was given to the Red Cross organization.

The second annual election of officers was held January 11, 1918, in the club rooms in the Union Trust Building. Carl C. Graf was elected president at this meeting. Otto Stark, the retiring president, was elected our first honorary member at this meeting. The year closed with a membership of eighty-six.

During years of 1919 to 1922 meetings were held in the studios of artist members. The year 1921 there was no president elected, there was, however, a Board of Directors, with Frederick Polley as Chairman.

- 1922-23 Frederick Polley, President. Club room opened in the When Building. This room on the upper floor, Pennsylvania Street side, was renovated and decorated by club members with Louis Mueller as supervisor.
- 1923-24 Wilson B. Parker, President. Mr. Parker, a prominent architect of Indianapolis, brought into the club the entire membership of the Architectural Club of this city, together with the cash balance left in their treasury.
- 1924-25 Randolph Coats, President. New club rooms were taken in the D.A.R. building, on North Pennsylvania street. An auction exhibit of members' work proved successful. Mardi Gras Ball held Feb. 26, 1925, at John Herron Art Museum.
- 1925-26 Edward R. Sitzman, President. During 1926 the club lost three prominent members, Otto Stark died April 14, Theodore C. Steele died July 24, and Fred Nelson Vance died September 21. At the time of their deaths Mr. Stark was Third Vice-president, and Mr. Steele and Mr. Vance were directors.
- At the regular business meeting Dec. 18, 1925, an addition was made to the original constitution to permit associate members to hold office. This action resulted in the election of Dr. Leonidas F. Smith as president of the club.
- 1926-27 Leonidas F. Smith, President. In 1926 the club joined with the Woman's Department Club in forming the Indiana Federation of Art Clubs. In March, 1927, Dr. Smith and 24 members of the club attended the Hoosier Salon, in Chicago, and helped in founding the Hoosier Salon Patrons Association. Mrs. S. E. Perkins presided at this meeting, Mrs. H. B. Burnet was made chairman of the membership committee, and Dr. Smith was elected Indiana vice-president. The Fancy Dress Carnival Ball presented April 21, 1927, at John Herron Art Museum.
- 1927-28 George C. Calvert, President. In May, 1928, Ada Walter Shulz, a member of the club died. J. Otis Adams, a member, died January 29, 1927. Fifth Annual Costume Ball held April 14, 1928, at Herron Art Museum.
- 1929-30 George C. Calvert, President. In 1929, Wayman Adams and Victor Higgins were elected honorary members of the club. Sixth Annual Spring Frolic, April 27, 1929, Marott Hotel.
- 1930-31 Carl Lyman, President. Chinese Ball, March 29, 1930, held at Severin Hotel.
- 1931-32 Carl Lyman, President. Mythological Costume Ball, April 10, 1931, held at John Herron Art Museum.
- 1932-33 Edward K. Williams, President. Amendment to constitution changed the annual dues for artist members from $5 to $2. Picnic at Hermitage, Brookville, Sunday, Oct. 9, 1932.

- 1933-34 Edward K. Williams, President. Annual art exhibit of members' work held at Spink Arms Hotel, Nov. 30 to January 1, 1933. Ninth Annual Costume Ball held April 21, 1934, at Hotel Antlers. Picnic June 24, 1933, was held at Paradise Hills Studio of Fred Polley.
- 1934-35 Ruthven Byrum, President. Annual Brawl, Gothic Costume Ball held April 20, 1935, Travertine Room, Lincoln Hotel.
- 1935-36 Ruthven Byrum, President. Annual exhibit of members held at L. S. Ayres and Company's Foyer of Tea Room, November 18 to be open two weeks.
- 1936-37 William F. Kaeser, President. May 2, 1936, Mabel Shideler, Anton Scherrer were elected honorary members, and May 16, 1936, Carl Lyman was elected to honorary membership.
- The Story Book Ball was held October 17, 1936. The club held a member spring picnic at Nashville, on Sunday, June 14, 1936. Open studios and noon luncheon with the Brown County artists was enjoyable occasion.
- 1937-38 William F. Kaeser, President. At the regular business meeting October 26, 1938, a rule was passed to eliminate the 25% commission on purchase prizes at annual exhibits and to give artists the full purchase prize amount.
- 1938-39 Gordon B. Mess, President. Five pictures were purchased by the club from the annual art exhibition and presented to the Indianapolis public schools. The March of Time Ball held April 22, 1939, at Lincoln Hotel.
- 1939-40 Gordon B. Mess, President. This year the annual dues were changed from $2 to $3 for artist members. Artist's Club Ball held May 18, 1940, at the Athenaeum. Annual exhibit held L. S. Ayres & Co., last of October, 1939.
- 1940-41 Frederick Polley, President. Special feature was the "Artists on the Air," broadcast over WFBM. Annual art exhibit and pre-view dinner held at L. S. Ayres and Co., last of October, 1940.
- 1941-42 C. Curry Bohm, President. In January, 1942, the club voted to extend the courtesy of honorary membership to the outstate jury of the Hoosier Salon. Pan-American Ball, held Nov. 15, 1941, at Hoosier Athletic Club. John F. Carlson, Sydney Dickinson, Herman Wessel, and Harvey Emrich were elected to honorary membership. Annual art exhibit held L. S. Ayres & Co., last of October, 1941.
- 1942-43 Randolph Coats, President. Annual exhibit at L. S. Ayres & Co., held during the last of October. The pre-view dinner at Ayres was highlighted with a talk on "Art and War," by Ernest Bruce Haswell, of Cincinnati. A get together, "Information Please," was most interesting. A dinner was held at the Antler's Hotel, January 7, 1943, honoring the Hoosier Salon outstate jury, Jerry Farnsworth and Wayman Adams. These artists were presented with Honorary Life Membership in the club.

1943-44 A. Reid Winsey, President. For the annual exhibition this year, held the last part of October, Mr. Winsey appointed Ruth Pratt Bobbs as chairman of the prize fund committee. The prize fund was the largest ever offered by the club. A "secret jury" awarded the prizes. Annual Red Cross Ball held April 1945, at Athenaeum.

1944-45 Dale Bessire, President. Ruth Pratt Bobbs was appointed chairman of the prize fund committee and raised a fund of $3600 for the annual exhibit held at L. S. Ayres & Co., during the last of October 1945. This prize fund included an outstanding prize award of $500 awarded to Randolph Coats, for his entry "Janet."

A Brown County outing was held in September, 1945, for members and guests, with an attendance of 150.

EXCERPTS from the CONSTITUTION

Adopted December 12, 1930

Article 1. NAME.

The name of this organization shall be the INDIANA ARTISTS CLUB.

Article 2. OBJECT.

Its object shall be to advance the artistic interests of its membership and of this community by all appropriate means.

Article 3. MEMBERSHIP.

Sec. 1. Membership shall be of three classes: Active, Associate and Junior. Active members shall be persons engaged in the pursuit of some branch of the fine arts. Associate members shall be persons other than artists, who are seriously interested in art. Junior members shall be art students or others who are preparing for activity in art. Only active members shall be entitled to vote.

Sec. 3. The club may by unanimous vote of the members present, at any regular meeting, elect to Honorary membership persons of distinguished attainment in art; and such Honorary members shall be exempt from all obligations to the club.

AMENDMENTS

Governing New Members and Dues

Amendment A. Artist candidates for membership must pass the following requirements:

1. They must have been accepted in two recognized juried exhibitions.

2. They must submit three original works of art executed without criticism from private instructor, and done outside regular class work. These works of art will be submitted to a secret membership committee of five members appointed by the president. The committee's action will be secret and final.

Paintings may be sent until further notice to Lyman Bros., 33 Monument Circle, Indianapolis, marked "Membership Committee, Indiana Artists Club," the first week of September or the first week of February each year, to be juried.

Amendment B. Candidates accepted for membership shall pay $5.00 for the first year; $3.00 per year thereafter.

Any member delinquent in dues for one or more years shall pay $5.00 for re-instatement the first year; $3.00 per year thereafter.

RULES

Governing the Annual Exhibit

Adopted at open meeting December 8, 1945

- 1—A General Exhibition Committee of three, Chairman and two other members, to have general charge of the exhibit is to be appointed by the President.
- 2 Sub-committees will be appointed by the General Exhibition Committee, as follows:
 - a—Prize Fund Committee of three, to have charge of collecting the prize awards. The Chairman of this committee will collect and deposit this fund in an account named "Indiana Artists Club Prize Fund," and will check out the awards to the prize winners, checks to be signed by Prize Committee Chairman and the Club Treasurer. The Prize Committee Chairman will make an accounting to the Treasurer at the conclusion of the exhibition.
 - b—Jury of Selection of five, to select from the entries submitted, those that will hang in the show.
 - c—Hanging Committee of three, to have charge of hanging of the exhibit.
 - d—Publicity Chairman. Committee to be selected by Publicity Chairman.
 - e—Catalogue Committee to have charge of the exhibition catalogue, compiling, and printing. Three in number.
 - f—Social Committee for exhibit, of five, to have charge of all social affairs in connection with the show.
- 3—The President of the club is to act in an advisory capacity in the selection of sub-committees and on committees, and will cast the deciding vote in case of deadlock occurring in any committee.
- 4—A Jury of Awards of three, preferably two artists and one layman, is to be selected by a committee of three, consisting of the President of the club, the General Exhibition Chairman and one other to be appointed by the President of the club. This jury will meet not less than three days prior to the opening of the show, will act alone, and will award the jury prizes on a basis of merit as they see it, with consideration for all schools of painting. The names of the members of this jury will be announced publicly, and their action will be final. Prizes awarded are not to be announced nor indicated on the paintings until after the Purchase Awards are selected.
- 5—Purchase awards are to be selected the following day by donors, or if they do not wish to appear, by the committee previously appointed to select the jury of awards.
- 6—Jury prizes and purchase prizes are to be listed separately in the show catalogue.
- 7—Only active artist members are eligible to receive awards and to show work in the exhibit.
- 8—The Jury of Selection will not serve more than one year consecutively.

In Appreciation

On behalf of the INDIANA ARTISTS CLUB, INC., I would like to express my appreciation to L. S. Ayres Company and to their generous and cooperative staff. Our appreciation goes far beyond the physical opportunity to present this 25th annual Exhibition; it is echoed by the very real gratitude of the contemporary painter, on the local scene, for the past quarter century, and will be re-expressed in many visual forms in the years ahead.

Nor can we forget the innumerable Patrons who, now, as in the past 25 years have given incentive awards to the working Artist. In this respect the committee members, working year after year, are themselves "Patrons" as well.

JOHN FREDERIC ROSS, President
